Jim Hendrickson Joins PT&C as Senior Vice President

ATLANTA – Project Time & Cost, LLC (PT&C) announced today that Jim Hendrickson has joined the firm as Senior Vice President of Strategy and Commercial Markets.

Mr. Hendrickson has more than 30 years of experience assisting energy and utility executives with corporate and competitive market strategies and broad transformational improvement initiatives. Most recently, he served as Deloitte Consulting's North American Strategy and Operations lead partner for power and utilities. His experience also includes positions as Vice President with Booz & Company/Booz Allen & Hamilton and Managing Partner for Accenture's North American Utility Strategy practice.

"With extensive experience in the energy and utility sector, Jim is a valuable addition to our team. I am confident that he will be an important asset as we continue to expand our services into new markets," said Andy Reape, PT&C's President and Chief Executive Officer.

Mr. Hendrickson earned a BS in Nuclear Engineering from the University of Virginia and an MS in Industrial Administration from Carnegie Mellon University.
